

Through His Eyes

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are observed with benevolence, that faith and influence for a better citizenship and stronger democracy in the church the ministerial are leading religious choruses. Sermons today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership times. There we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

This is a day of reckoning. This is a day of exactness. This is a day when every man must stand up and be counted. Whether you are a watchmaker or a grinder of high-powered lenses... you've got to be good. God demands our best. He is not satisfied with average products. To be out of measurement means the whole of what you are doing is useless. Precision grinding is expected of you if you are to be trusted with the operation of this highly efficient machine. Spiritual Precision is necessary if you are to walk with God.

We also are to work in the field of sensitive minds, hearts, nerves and spirits. This is the realm of spiritual and eternal values. Flesh and blood persons are to be dealt with. Am I as careful in moulding the life of a child as in creating a watch, or a lens, or a pilotless plane? There is no better place to learn of the fundamental workings of God than at the little Church on the corner. Here, you will hear the Master Workman, as he says, "Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these, you did it unto me."

See You in Church TODAY!

Girl Scouts Hold Program As Camp Ends

Nearly 160 girls from Torrance, Seaside Ranchos, Walters, Lomita, Harbor City, and the surrounding area climaxed a two-week day camp at Torrance Park Thursday morning with a song and dance program illustrating camp work.

Each of the eight units, Chief Baldy, led by Mrs. George Steele; Bouquet, directed by Mrs. John J. McCabe; Sunbeam, supervised by Mrs. W. H. Farwell; Minnetonka, under the guidance of Mrs. Robert A. Osborn; Forest, led by Mrs. D. R. Dexheimer; Aloha, under the direction of Mrs. William J. Nanery; Rainbow Girls, guided by Mrs. Edward Egges; and Minnehaha, supervised by Mrs. E. K. Cunningham, presented a short program before the group adjourned to the picnic tables for their last camp meal.

Outdoor cooking, hiking, knot-tying, and the making of raffia and pine needle mats highlighted the camp period, held each Monday through Thursday since June 22. Mrs. Thomas G. Smiley, assisted by Mrs. Oakley Edmunds, directed the session, with Mesdames William Crocker, Marian Carpenter, and A. Krausser aiding as program consultants.

Lomita-H. C. Lions, Wives Seat Leaders

The E. R. Beck family shared the spotlight Wednesday night as the Harbor City-Lomita Lions and Lioness clubs held joint installation ceremonies at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Beck took office as the second president of the men's group, while his wife was seated as the first president of the newly-formed women's auxiliary following a 7:30 o'clock dinner.

Three other husband and wife teams were seated as officers during the rites, conducted by Lions' District Governor Wayland Baldwin and the new Torrance Lions president, Mrs. Roy Peterson.

Ray F. Farrin, Lions' charter president, was installed as the club secretary-treasurer, while his wife took over as Lioness Club vice-president. Dallas K. Beauchamp and his wife assumed duties of Lions' first vice-president and Lioness secretary, respectively, and the Loman D. Carters were installed as lion tamer and growler-publicity chairman of the men's and women's groups.

Other Lions installed were Soren K. Bach, second vice-president; Harry P. Linderman and Oscar Swobeger, directors; and Fred Giordano, tall twister. Assuming the position of Lioness treasurer was Mrs. Guy Ingram.

Dancing to the music of the Triano orchestra climaxed the evening festivities.

Torrance Teacher Exchanges Rings, Vows With Local Man

Double ring ceremonies at the First Methodist Church here last Sunday united Merlyn X. Anderson, a teacher of instrumental music in Torrance schools, in marriage to Cecil B. Wilde of Torrance. Officiating at the rites was the Rev. John L. Taylor.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Wright, 1023 Arlington Ave., wore a gown of mauve Chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta. A Juliet cap held her shoulder-length veil in place, and tiny shell pink shaltered carnations surrounded the orchid centering her Pinochio rose and orchid heather bouquet, which she carried on a white Bible.

Attending the bride were her sorority sisters, Miss Cathryn M. Chisholm, maid of honor; Mesdames Frank Wilson, Ray Nelson, and William Hall, bridesmaids. The girls were gowned in pastel shades of aqua, turquoise, pink, and dusty rose taffeta with overskirts of net. Chantilly lace boleros styled after the bride's gown completed their costumes.

Flower girl Jane Stromm was "Sweet Allice Blue Gown" in ruffled taffeta.

Frank E. Wilson served as best man, while ushers were Ray Nelson, E. Lee Isom, and Earl P. Miller. With Pat Clegg at the organ, Lloyd Jones sang "Calm is the Night" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Talking honor positions at the reception held in the church social hall immediately following the ceremony were Mary Palmer, Florene Devlin, Evelyn Russell, Lois Gongwer, Kay Kent, Betty Miller, and Fern Leon.

The new Mrs. Anderson and her husband will reside at 2516 Cambridge Ave. She is a graduate of Indianapolis Conservatory of Music and Long Beach State College, where she is a charter member of the Omega Alpha Delta honorary sorority. He is a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines and now is laboratory manager of the Research Department of Stauffer Chemical Co. at Los Angeles.
